CHAPLAIN FULLER; BEING A LIFE-SKETCH OF A NEW-ENGLAND CLERGYMAN AND AN ARMY CHAPLAIN.

The Rev. ARTHUR R. FULLER, after faithful service in the Army of the Potomac, as Chaplain of the 1st Massachusetts Regt., fell in the attack on Fredericksburg. This volume gives a full and graphic sketch of the Chaplain, and is well calculated to interest the public generally, will, of course, be in the graphic pictures of CAMP AND FIELD LIFE.

Copies of extracts are given from the correspondence of the Rev. Mr. Fullerton, and the book embodies a vast amount of important information on the subject of the conduct and progress of the war.

The narrative of the remarkable fact between the Marquis and Monier is the only fact ever written from the pen of an active eye-witness of the whole affair.

12mo., with portrait; $1.25.

Also, NOW READ:

COMMON PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN WORSHIP.

A COMPILATION, IN PART BY THE REV. JAMES M. LINDNER, OF LONDON, and now introduced into use in England.

As far as we are in the public service, it is contemplated that the freshness and purity of its prayers, collects, &c., will render it a favorite book for social and private devotion.

12mo., cloth, red edges; $1.25.
